COMPLAINT

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

The above-captioned Plaintiff, through undersigned counsel, respectfully appears and States, Alleges, and Requests:

IDENTIFICATION OF THE PARTIES

1. The plaintiff, Mr. Román Carrasco, also known as Román Carrasco Delgado (hereinafter referred to as "the plaintiff" and/or "Don Román"), is of legal age, widowed, unemployed, and a resident of Carretera 3, Ramal 925, Km. 76.5, Bo. Río Abajo, Humacao, PR 00791. His mailing address is Urbanización Verde Mar 643, Calle Ámbar, Punta Santiago, PR 00741; telephone: 939-279-6982.

2. Co-defendant RIMAS ENTERTAINMENT, LLC is a corporation organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, authorized to conduct business in Puerto Rico, with capacity to sue and be sued, with a physical address at 644 Avenida Fernández Juncos, Suite 501, San Juan, PR 00907; mailing address at G-8, Calle O'Neill, San Juan, PR 00918.

3. Co-defendant MOVE CONCERTS, PR INC. is a corporation organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, authorized to conduct business in Puerto Rico, with capacity to sue and be sued, with a physical and mailing address at Avenida Arterial Hostos, Edificio Galería 1, Suite 206, San Juan, PR 00918.

4. Co-defendant A1 PRODUCTIONS, LLC is a corporation organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, authorized to conduct business in Puerto Rico, with capacity to sue and be sued, with a physical and mailing address at Apollo II, Calle Atenas 00-18, Guaynabo, PR 00969.

5. Co-defendant Benito Antonio Martínez Ocasio, better known in the entertainment industry as "Bad Bunny," is of legal age, single, with capacity to sue and be sued. The physical and mailing address of the artist is unknown; once such information is obtained, the complaint will be amended to include it.

6. Insurance Companies A and B have been named as any insurance company that may have issued a public liability insurance policy in favor of each of the co-defendants.

7. Unknown defendants C and D have been named as any natural or legal person who may bear liability for the acts alleged in this claim and whose identities are presently unknown.

ALLEGATIONS

8. The plaintiff, Don Román, is an 84-year-old person who received very little formal education. He cannot read or write, although he can sign his name. Don Román is the fee-simple owner of a property located on Carretera 3, Ramal 925, Km. 76.5, of Barrio Río Abajo, in the municipality of Humacao, Puerto Rico. Said property is recorded in his name at the Puerto Rico Property Registry. The aforementioned property is hereinafter referred to as "La Casita." La Casita was built and designed by Don Román and his brother during the 1960s.

9. La Casita was the property used by Rimas Entertainment and/or Move Concerts and/or A1 Productions in the short film titled Debí Tirar Más Fotos by artist Benito Antonio Martínez Ocasio, artistically known as Bad Bunny.

10. In approximately mid-November 2024, Ms. Mariam Padial, who upon information and belief is an employee, representative, and/or agent of all co-defendants, made several approaches to Don Román for the purpose of visiting and surveying La Casita. Ms. Padial works as a "location scout" for the co-defendants.

11. The reason Ms. Padial sought to contact Don Román was to request his consent to use La Casita as the main set for the short film referenced in paragraph nine (9) above. Ms. Padial did not explain the details of the short film to Don Román, nor did she present him with a formal or informal proposal regarding the same. Nevertheless, Don Román consented, although he had no detailed knowledge of the manner in which La Casita would be used.

12. During the same month of November 2024, employees and/or agents of the co-defendants began work to clean and prepare La Casita for the filming of the short film. The short film was filmed between November 27 and December 3, 2024, and featured as its lead actor the renowned artist Mr. Jacobo Morales. As of that date, Don Román still did not know the specifics of how his property would be used.

13. When asking about the details of the agreement, officials of the co-defendants required Don Román's signature on the blank screen of a cell phone. Said officials digitally and fraudulently transferred said signature to two separate contracts. Initially, these contracts were not provided to Don Román; their contents were neither explained to him nor read to him. The plaintiff could not read them either, as he does not possess that ability.

14. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Don Román received two payments in two separate checks: one for the amount of $2,400.00 and another for $2,800.00.

15. It is affirmatively alleged that Mr. Román's consent regarding the "contracts" for the use of La Casita in the aforementioned short film was vitiated. From the use of his signature without his consent to the failure to explain the details of the contracts, said agreements are rendered completely null and void. The plaintiff believes the co-defendants took advantage of his limited education to deceive him.

16. Thus, on January 3, 2025, the video of the short film titled Debí Tirar Más Fotos by artist Benito Antonio Martínez Ocasio, hereinafter referred to as "Bad Bunny," was first published on the "YouTube" platform, in which Mr. Jacobo Morales starred as the lead actor, using La Casita as the set. See Exhibits 1 and 2, Photo of La Casita.

17. As of today, the aforementioned video has twenty-two (22) million views on said platform. Additionally, co-defendant RIMAS ENTERTAINMENT, LLC published on "YouTube" a "visualizer" for each song on Bad Bunny's latest album, Debí Tirar Más Fotos, in which La Casita was used for each of the videos, which collectively have millions of views, translating into significant revenue for the co-defendants.

18. It was not until July 2025 — a date subsequent to the publication of the short film on YouTube — that the plaintiff obtained copies of the contracts. Said copies were obtained at the request of Don Román's son, by direct petition to Ms. Viviana Rebella, an agent and/or employee of the co-defendants. Said documents are titled "Location Contract" and are dated November 26, 2024.

19. These "contracts" are not only null and void, but they did not contemplate the use of La Casita for any purpose other than the filming of the short film.

20. It should be noted that during the filming of the short film, officials of the co-defendants began photographing all exterior angles of La Casita and took measurements of its exteriors. Likewise, said officials took photographs and measurements of the interiors of La Casita, including the kitchen. This fact seemed somewhat curious to Don Román, but he did not give it any ill thought.

21. In grave disregard of Don Román's interests, and without any permission from him, the co-defendants used the measurements and photographs taken of Don Román's Casita to build an exact replica of it inside the Coliseo de Puerto Rico José Miguel Agrelot, to be used in Bad Bunny's concert series entitled No Me Quiero Ir de Aquí. This concert series took place between July 11 and September 14, 2025. Additionally, a final performance was scheduled for September 20, 2025, which would be broadcast on Amazon's paid service, Amazon Prime.

22. There is no doubt that La Casita has been the main set of Bad Bunny's concerts, at which a large number of world-class artists have performed. It is also well known that during the concert series, great anticipation was created around who would be the guest artists in the residence (La Casita) each weekend, thereby achieving the commercial exploitation of said set.

23. The use of Mr. Román's property and its commercial exploitation, both as part of the aforementioned short film and the concerts, has been done without fair compensation and without a valid contract, which constitutes unjust enrichment on the part of Rimas Entertainment LLC, Move Concerts, PR Inc., A1 Productions, as well as the artist Bad Bunny.

Cause of Action for Unjust Enrichment

24. Our highest court has established that the application of the doctrine of unjust enrichment is not restricted to the contractual sphere. It is a doctrine or general principle of law that may be applied to very different situations, provided they share a common element: that failure to apply it would perpetrate the inequity of allowing someone to be unjustly enriched at the expense of another. It constitutes a norm grounded in criteria of equity — that is, justice — that permeates our entire legal system. Sánchez Torres v. Pila Iglesias, 2012 TSPR 130, 186 P.R. Dec. 503, 506.

25. The doctrine of unjust enrichment is invoked when the law has not foreseen a situation in which a patrimonial shift occurs that finds no reasonable explanation in the existing legal order. To facilitate its application, the Supreme Court has adopted the following criteria: (1) Existence of an enrichment; (2) A correlative impoverishment; (3) A connection between the impoverishment and the enrichment; (4) Lack of cause justifying the enrichment; (5) Nonexistence of a legal provision that excludes the application of unjust enrichment. Id.

26. The aforementioned doctrine applies to the facts narrated above because, without a doubt, the use, production, and commercial exploitation, as well as the obtaining of any income as a consequence of the use of Don Román's Casita, has resulted in millions of dollars in revenue for the co-defendants, and no benefit whatsoever for the plaintiff. Likewise, Don Román did not grant his consent and/or his consent was vitiated for the use of his property.

27. The foregoing has resulted in harm to the proprietary and economic interests of Don Román, estimated at a sum of no less than FIVE MILLION DOLLARS ($5,000,000.00), to be paid jointly and severally by all co-defendants.

Cause of Action for Damages

28. The level of popularity and exposure of La Casita, used without his consent in the short film and in Bad Bunny's concerts, has reached such a level that Don Román has been stripped of his privacy and intimacy. Daily, a large number of people stop in front of or enter the perimeter of La Casita to take photographs and videos of the location. Additionally, La Casita has been the subject of dozens and/or hundreds of posts on social media and the sale of products bearing the image of his property, from which he receives no benefit whatsoever. On the contrary, Don Román is the subject of malicious comments and insinuations that did not occur prior to the publication of the aforementioned video.

29. As a consequence of the foregoing, the peace, tranquility, and lifestyle that Don Román jealously guarded have been disrupted as a consequence of the video Debí Tirar Más Fotos and the concerts.

30. The damages and mental anguish suffered by Don Román are estimated at a sum of no less than ONE MILLION DOLLARS ($1,000,000.00), to be paid by all co-defendants jointly and severally.

31. Don Román does not wish to cause harm to any of the co-defendants; rather, he wishes them great success. What Don Román requests is the fair compensation warranted in justice, equity, and under the law.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested of this Honorable Court that it rule IN FAVOR of the present Complaint, and consequently order all co-defendants to jointly and severally pay the damages claimed herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs of litigation, together with any other relief that may be warranted under the law.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED.
